What is community service?

Community service is helping out your city, your school or your church community as a volunteer. PCMS prefers that this be a part of an organized effort for your safety.

What qualifies as community service?

SCHOOL COMMUNITY SERVICE:

1. Helping a teacher in their classroom after school
2. Assisting in the library after school
3. Volunteering at an elementary after school program
4. Working a booth at a school carnival
5. Volunteer activities through the builder's club
6. Assisting new students to PCMS as a Dragon Guide

CIVIC COMMUNITY SERVICE:

1. Helping at the public library
2. Sorting at the recycling center
3. Assisting at the Salvation Army
4. Volunteering for civic organizations (Kiwanas Club, Chamber of Commerce, etc.)

CHURCH COMMUNITY SERVICE:

1. Watching children in the church nursery
2. Being an accolade
3. Other service oriented activities through your youth group

What is NOT community service?

1. Babysitting your siblings
2. Picking up trash in the neighborhood or on your street
3. Doing your chores
4. Mowing your neighbors lawn
5. Assisting your parent at their work place

Please listen to the daily announcements. Community services opportunities will often be announced then. Students will need to come to the counselor's office and sign up but only after checking with parents for permission.

If you are unsure whether something would be considered community service, please come to the counselor's office and ask before you volunteer.
